—Dr. Simmons tells us there is a bright baby girl at the home of Frank A. and wife; the little one came on this earth August 27. The doctor also tells us that Mrs. Funk, who was badly burned in the face last week, is improving nicely.

Every three weeks from six to ten barrels of apples are put on exhibition, and in the six exhibitions thus far Missouri has captured the first prize each time.

—Dr. Harrington, a physician of Farley, a small town in Platte county, Mo., south of Leavenworth, shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. William Wallace; his wife's uncle, James Wallace; a wealthy farmer, and the sheriff of Platte county, J. H. Dillingham, Monday last week, and was in turn shot dead by the murdered sheriff's son Henry, himself a deputy, who was helping his father in an attempt to arrest the murderer. Harrington, it is said, was drunk at the time.

—Maryville was afflicted with a plague of crickets, grasshoppers and "katydids" Monday night and the merchants around the town were kept up all night long morning sweeping them out of their stores. There seems to be no satisfactory way of accounting for the visitation. Grasshoppers and katydids are known to go in flocks, but the presence of the crickets can hardly be accounted for. The are light globe at the north and the west corner of the square, between the Ream drug store and the Alderman corner, was literally filled with the things. They were dumped out on the ground and attracted much attention during the day. —Maryville Tribune.

—J. J. Pierce has our thanks for some fine cantaloupes, the product of his ranch in Colorado. The flavor and taste is far excellent—much sweeter than the average cantaloupe of this country, and the entire inside is good down to a rind not thicker than a knife blade. Mr. Pierce and Mr. Hershner returned this week from their trip to that country.

—The school begins next Monday and the scholars are squirming and twisting in trying to get their books at the least possible expense, and those who go in advance of the classes will be the first to have their books.

—The meeting of Oregon Camp, No. 5036, M. W. A., last Tuesday evening was a most pleasant one, and one that will be long remembered, at least by the two candidates who were shown the full mysteries of Woodcraft. Standing room was at a premium, for many visitors were present from our sister lodges of the county. Owing to the fact that Chas. C. Watson is soon to leave here for Kansas City, Mo., he resigned his position as Venerable Consul of the camp, and Arthur Petree was elected to fill the vacancy. Sept. 28th, was the date given Miss Mae Gelvin for her recital. Frank Allen's orchestra will furnish vocal and instrumental music.

—The school begins next Monday and the scholars are squirming and twisting in trying to get their books at the least possible expense, and those who go in advance of the classes will be the first to have their books.

—The meeting of Oregon Camp, No. 5036, M. W. A., last Tuesday evening was a most pleasant one, and one that will be long remembered, at least by the two candidates who were shown the full mysteries of Woodcraft. Standing room was at a premium, for many visitors were present from our sister lodges of the county. Owing to the fact that Chas. C. Watson is soon to leave here for Kansas City, Mo., he resigned his position as Venerable Consul of the camp, and Arthur Petree was elected to fill the vacancy. Sept. 28th, was the date given Miss Mae Gelvin for her recital. Frank Allen's orchestra will furnish vocal and instrumental music.
